The process of securing the health tourists and their companions Coordination with the facilitating companies for arrival health tourist to the hospital by IPD expert Acceptance of health tourists in the hospital by IPD team Coordination with hospital's security team to ensure the safety of the patients and their companions by IPD expert Supervision of the IPD expert and IPD nurse on the admission process until the discharge Attendance of the IPD nurse if referral to other centers is needed Coordination and supervision of the IPD expert on the patient's discharging until leaving the center Discharging patient